MISS DRAPER IS PRINCE'S BRIDE AT CAPITAL

In Washington today Miss Margaret Weston Draper, Massachusetts richest girl, and Prince Andrea Boncompagni, one of the Princes of the old Italian family, were married. The marriage is regarded as one of the most notable of the international marriages, and one that interests both continents, owing to the prominence of both bride and groom.

The ceremony took place at noon in the Draper home at No. 703 K street, Washington, the home of Mrs. William F. Draper, mother of the bride. The bride, then drawing from the decorative art, and it is here that the ceremony took place.

The unusual privilege of having this man as a guest in private residence was granted as a special favor to the Boncompagni family by the Vatican.

The Prince's affluence to the bride was having been taken from her home, that had been in the Boncompagni family for generations, which was brought to the United States by appointment.

It was in this room, on the 20th of June, where today Miss Draper met her destiny in becoming an Italian princess, that the baptismal rites of the Catholic church were administered to her this week.

Cardinal Gibbons performed the marriage ceremony, and Right Rev. Mr. William T. Russell of St. Patrick's Church in Washington officiated as the officiating priest.

Only Miss Draper and William King, brother of Boston, Miss Draper's trustee, and the prince, were present. The wedding breakfast, which was served at the Draper home, was a most sumptuous affair.

The wedding gown was of white tulle, and was worn later at her presentation at the Vatican. She wears the famous Draper pearls.

Today's marriage is the climax of a romance that began when the Prince was a student at Milton College, Oxford, and while Miss Draper was touring the country with her parents.

SIGNAL CORPS COMES BACK FROM BORDER

Miss S. Brinkley came to welcome her brother Hugh, back from Texas. Happy! Well, look at the picture.

With a raw east wind blowing in their faces and clad in their line Winter army overcoats, 10 men and eight officers, constituting the Massachusetts Signal Corps, who have been stationed at El Paso since June 27, returned at Huntington avenue yesterday afternoon after a six-day and night trip from the border.

They came unannounced, with no crowds to greet them and with no bands to escort them through the streets of Boston. They worked swiftly and orderly, and in less than two hours were snugly quartered in the Commonwealth Army.

Later they were dismissed and allowed to go to their homes. Major Harry Chase, in command of the unit, when someone asked him if he felt chilly, replied, "Ah, boy, that little old east wind, we've missed. It really feels good."

The train, consisting of several flat cars and two box-cars, together with several deep-sea for the officers and men, rolled into the yards at 2 P. M.

There were seventy-two horses, nine wagons six wire carts and various other pieces of equipment. The boys of the Signal Corps, who are known as the "flat cars and their horses," were the first to be seen.

A "home run" as far as Ohio is concerned. With no less than four speeches scheduled for Cincinnati, where he arrives tomorrow morning, one would not wonder why the President would not want to miss this opportunity in the Republican campaign.

The President's visit to this city will be a regular one. He will be able to make a platform talk as he finds time to enter the city.

He will arrive in Philadelphia at 10 o'clock at Baltimore at 4 o'clock this evening. His train will reach Philadelphia at 11:15 and Cincinnati at 11:45.

A "home run" as far as Ohio is concerned. With no less than four speeches scheduled for Cincinnati, where he arrives tomorrow morning, one would not wonder why the President would not want to miss this opportunity in the Republican campaign.

The President's visit to this city will be a regular one. He will be able to make a platform talk as he finds time to enter the city.

He will arrive in Philadelphia at 10 o'clock at Baltimore at 4 o'clock this evening. His train will reach Philadelphia at 11:15 and Cincinnati at 11:45.

There will be first response to the President's address at the Women's City Club at luncheon, mass meetings after a motor tour of the city and a big meeting at the Hotel Hamilton at 8:15 in the evening.

Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, or you can eat what you like, like and 25c per box. All druggists.

HELL IS FULL OF HYPOCRITES, SAYS SUNDAY

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 25.—Billy Sunday preached to 10,000 members of the Masonic Fraternity, almost filling the great tabernacle, making the service one of the most impressive of the entire series of meetings so far.

Mr. Sunday's son, George Sunday, and his choir master, Homer Hodge, were present.

"What shall I do to be saved?" was the text of Sunday's sermon to the Masons. He said in part:

"You say, 'Mr. Sunday, the church is full of hypocrites.' So is hell. I say to you, if you don't want to go to hell and live with that bunch, come over, come into the church where there are only a few of them and where you don't have to associate with them very long. There are no hypocrites in heaven."

"Oh, you're a wise man, you are. You say, 'I can be a Christian and go to heaven without joining the church.'"

"Yes, and you can go to Europe without getting aboard a steamer—but the sharks are laying for the fellow that takes that route. I don't believe you—if a man is truly saved he will hunt for a church right away."

RECORD IN CONVERSIONS.

The number of converts made in Detroit by Sunday so far is 16,165, which is far ahead of the record he has made in any other city of the same size. More were saved in Philadelphia, but there was more population to draw upon.

Billy Sunday will lead a great parade of 50,000 prohibition voters through the streets of Detroit, November 4, just before Michigan votes on the dry question. Already Sunday's campaign is said to have become the biggest factor in the campaign to make Michigan dry.

At the afternoon service Mr. Sunday said:

"I am sometimes reminded when I think of some churches, of the story of the fine Eastern church with splendid colored stained glass windows, and great archway over the Christ. Then at one comes to the door he finds a sign, 'Closed for the Summer.'"

HELL ALWAYS OPEN.

"It has never appeared to me to go to a city and find the churches closed and the saloons running full blast. Hell is open 365 days of the year, yet you find churches closed for the Summer."

"You are a wise man," was the text of the afternoon service. Luke-warm Christians and Luke-warm preachers were mercilessly flayed by the Evangelist. He said:

"Come right out and be positive—don't be playing with religion. What the world wants is deeds not words. The eyes of the unswayed multitude who never read the Bible are reading your every day life. Talk is cheap—a lot of you are expert windjammers, but you can't deliver the goods."

"Oh, how I hate a trimmer, a mutt or a mollycoddle who is anyone or somebody, according to who he happens to be among—and then at election time does not vote at all. Be positive and come right out with your beliefs."

"We are put into the world not to wrap hands about the people we meet and lead them from God by our example but are put into the world to set men free. What can you do for others by talking temperance when you have whiskey on your sideboard?"

"God is going to judge your Christianity by the way you smile and say, 'Good Morning.' It is a sad thing for a man to say he is a Christian and then prove by his life he is a liar. The witness who has perjured himself in an injury to the entire race he represents in court, and you injure the entire body of believers when you sinest and go wrong."
